36.

37. REPRESENTATION OFFICER REPORT:

38.

39. Linda Chan reported that: a) she attended the Academic Senate meeting this past week in which

40. enrollment priorities, AP 55 was discussed. As Linda interprets the policy, If you are a Continuing

41. students are at bottom of enrollment line for classes.

42. b) At the President's Steering Committee meeting today, Sue Kieth and Linda were working on de-

43. fining the "College of Completion". Dr. Rob Johnson provided a workshop on "College of Comple-

44. tion", suggested offering fewer choices of classes and majors would assist in preventing the paral-

45. ysis experienced by some in making their selections. It was anticipated that such a change would

47. result in lost jobs for both Full-time and Part-time faculty. c) A complaint about ReprOGraphics was
48. made by Linda at the Academic Senate meeting about access for Part-timers scheduled for night
49. classes. Linda's going to be circulating a survey about how easy it is to access duplication ser-
50. vices. Linda suggested roll-top curtain storage for secure test storage with access via card key, but
51. hasn't gotten support yet.

52. d) Linda will be attending the California Community College meeting in Manhattan Beach.

53.

97. DISCUSSION / ACTION ITEMS

98.

99. 1. Torkalson Campaign for State Superintendent of Education: A letter was sent to Bill
100. describing amongst other things, the maximum contribution of $6,800. Marshall Tuck of Green
101. Dot is opposing Torkalson and is expected to campaign with a sizable fund. The check needs
102. to be sent before 12/7. A possible special election may be conducted that will be settled by
103. June 2014, (according to the letter). Linda moved that we contribute $1000 as a prelimi-
104. nary contribution with possible additional moneys in the future. Anne seconded. The motion
105. passed.

106. 2. Discuss additional pay for people pulling extra duty on faculty self-governance:

107. Linda described the number of hours she invests in service to campus on committees. Bill
108. endorsed additional compensation for these additional commitments. A $45/hr rate was sug-
109. gested as it is the current non-credit rate. Anne moved and Mark seconded reimbursement at
110. the $45/hr rate for committee work. A majority voted to approve. Bill and Linda abstained.
111. The E-Board assigns people to specific committees before approval of reimbursement can be
112. made. Linda will be drafting a form for submission to the treasurer for reimbursement. It was
113. mentioned that a representative from the Part-timers is needed for participation and represen-
114. tation on the Hotshots Committee to guard our interests in relation to the SLO issue.

115. 3. Schedule Spring meetings:

116. Meet in January on the same day we currently do and set schedule when we know what our
117. schedules are. The issue is tabled until then.

118.

119. Bill adjourned the meeting at 5:57 PM
